

World Naked Bike Ride 2006

Photo by Mike King (www.mikekingphoto.com)

What's this all about?

This is a worldwide naked protest against the destructive effects of car culture. Celebrate the body (and bike) as you enjoy the freedom of cycling past London's landmarks with less clothing than usual. We had 250 riders in London last year. This year we are predicting 350+ in London and 120 in Brighton's debut ride!

Do I have to be nude?

No! Many ride nude, but if you're shy, shorts, swimwear, crop tops, body-paint, or masks are all fine. It's 'bare as you dare', and no one will pressure you to take off more clothes than you want to. A perfect body is not required either... we come in all shapes and sizes.

Will I be arrested for nudity?

Highly unlikely. Police have again recognised our right to protest, and agreed to the Central London route and nudity.

EVENTS:

Thursday 8 June 2006

FILM PREMIERE (7pm in London) – The best way to find out what it'll be like, Johnny Zapatos' inspiring 30 minute documentary will be followed by a panel/audience discussion of the film and upcoming ride. Tickets are £5.50 and the venue is the Barbican Centre.

Saturday 10 June 2006

BRIGHTON RIDE– Assemble 10am at The Level (a park between Union, Lewes, and Ditchling Road)

LONDON RIDE– Assemble 3pm at Wellington Arch, Hyde Park Corner, London

(see www.worldnakedbikeride.org/uk for details)

World Naked Bike Ride 2006

Photo by Mike King (www.mikekingphoto.com)

What's this all about?

This is a worldwide naked protest against the destructive effects of car culture. Celebrate the body (and bike) as you enjoy the freedom of cycling past London's landmarks with less clothing than usual. We had 250 riders in London last year. This year we are predicting 350+ in London and 120 in Brighton's debut ride!

Do I have to be nude?

No! Many ride nude, but if you're shy, shorts, swimwear, crop tops, body-paint, or masks are all fine. It's 'bare as you dare', and no one will pressure you to take off more clothes than you want to. A perfect body is not required either... we come in all shapes and sizes.

Will I be arrested for nudity?

Highly unlikely. Police have again recognised our right to protest, and agreed to the Central London route and nudity.

EVENTS:

Thursday 8 June 2006

FILM PREMIERE (7pm in London) – The best way to find out what it'll be like, Johnny Zapatos' inspiring 30 minute documentary will be followed by a panel/audience discussion of the film and upcoming ride. Tickets are £5.50 and the venue is the Barbican Centre.

Saturday 10 June 2006

BRIGHTON RIDE– Assemble 10am at The Level (a park between Union, Lewes, and Ditchling Road)

LONDON RIDE– Assemble 3pm at Wellington Arch, Hyde Park Corner, London

(see www.worldnakedbikeride.org/uk for details)

BIKE
NAKED!

BIKE
NAKED!

